

Objectives

- To develop a model that will enable blind persons to navigate both familiar and unfamiliar places without the use of guides.
- To create a user-friendly interface that makes use of tactile feedback and sensations that are simple for blind users to grasp and interpret, enabling them to make smart navigational choices.